

C G/B Am

Some words I hear all the time like bed time, no, and

41 G C G/B

fi- nish your food first. Some words are still brand new like

Am 45 G C

ter- ra- form, fron- tal cor- tex, and brat- wurst. Some words are tongue

G/B Am 49 G

twis- ters like "if a dog chews shoes, whose shoes does he choose?"

C G/B Am

But some- times e- ven that's ea- sier than the hard things I must do

53 G C G/B Am 57 G

to say I'm sor- ry, I was wrong, I need help Oh

C G/B Am 61 G

I need a mi- nute, I'm scared, I don't know Oh

C G/B Am 65 G

Let's prac- tice say- ing them now so it's ea- sier when we need to.

C G/B Am

We can whis- per or shout them out loud just as long as we can be

69 G C G/B Am 73 G

true to our- selves Oh Oh

C G/B Am

Some words are hard to say but they're worth it, they're worth it,

77 G C G/B 3

they're worth it. Some words are hard to say but they're worth it,

Am 81 G C G/B

they're worth it, they're worth it. Brat dat dat da da da da oh

Am 85 G C G/B Am 89 G

oh. Brat dat dat da da da da oh Oh

C G/B Am

Some words are hard to say but they're worth it, they're worth it,

93 G C G/B

they're worth it. Some words are hard to say but they're worth it,

Am 97 G C

they're worth it, they're worth it.
